PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Junior Backend Developer with a background in International Trade and hands-on experience in JavaScript, Node.js, Express, MongoDB, and REST APIs. I have developed full-stack applications with a strong focus on server-side logic, authentication, data persistence, and MVC architecture. I am proficient in Git, Postman, REST Client, MySQL, and Agile Scrum methodologies. My previous experience in commercial operations, inventory management, and trend analysis enables me to understand business requirements and contribute practical digital solutions. I am eager to join a development team where I can continue growing my backend expertise, improve code quality, and help build scalable applications.
